Executive Director's Message: Rev. Dr. Ron Barnes, LSW

A Communal Call for Emotional, Relational, and Spiritual Peace

Meeting the needs of the community is how Anchorpoint began its mission almost fifty years ago. In 2016, we continued to expand our services to the greater northern area of Pittsburgh by offering more therapeutic and educational support groups. One of the commonalities in many of our clients is the issue of isolation. Our society continues to prioritize independence over interdependence which results in loneliness, lack of community and isolation. Our goal is to help our clients experience emotional, relational and spiritual peace in their lives.

Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry (ACM) is a Christian-based para-church ministry that is connected to and supported by many churches. This ministry was begun by sixteen churches working together to create Anchorpoint (previously North Hills Youth Ministry) as an outreach to teenagers who were not involved with a church or who were active in the drug culture of the late 60's, a culture that influenced considerable rebellion. The community of churches stepped it up and reached out and created a place, a community, for teens to gather and have music (a coffee house) and a place to dance. Adults were there to informally reach out and engage with teenagers through caring, connecting, Bible studies and fun activities. The idea took hold and fifty years later we are still stressing the importance of community. The Bible teaches us about Pentecost, the birthday of the church (the Christian Community). Anchorpoint's model of ministry is to be communal and to encourage communal involvement for all our clients through counseling, tutoring, parent education and through our growing number of therapeutic and educational support groups.

Jesus, the Blessed Child of the Father, is a peacemaker. His peace doesn't mean only absence of war. It is not simply harmony or equilibrium. His peace is the fullness of wellbeing, gratuitously given by God. Jesus says, "Peace I leave to you, my own peace I give you, a peace which the world cannot give, this is my gift to you." (John 14:27) Peace is Shalom —well-being of mind, heart, and body, individually and communally. It can exist in the midst of a war-torn world, even in the midst of unresolved problems and increasing human conflicts. Jesus made that peace by giving His life for His brothers and sisters. This is no easy peace, but it is everlasting and it comes from God. Are we willing to give our lives in the service of peace?

— Henri Nouwen

We are so grateful to all who make Anchorpoint a caring, communal ministry that offers emotional, relational and spiritual peace. It is through so many "giving hearts" that Anchorpoint has been able to minister for so long. We are grateful to our Board of Directors, our staff, our many volunteers, donors, local churches, foundations, small businesses and corporations for supporting Anchorpoint. Thank you to all of you who help Anchorpoint save families and save lives.

Board President's Message

Jim Ogle

It has been a true honor to lead the Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry Board during our 50 year celebration serving Pittsburgh families in need. As we jump in to 2017, the issues of our world seem vastly different than even just a year ago. The election, world politics, terrorism and dramatic crime scenes in our communities play out on TV and our phones on a regular basis. Technology and social media bring issues, viewpoints, and even movies to us in immediate time. Technology can bring great enhancements to our lives, but to many it brings stress and is a means to escape their anxiety, depression, loneliness, addiction or grief. We continue to see great increases in single parents feeling overwhelmed and teens feeling insignificant in who they are. Families that communicate by texting and not at the dinner table. Today's expectations and pressures compromise families and their core values with the result being many turning to drugs and even suicide. Technology will continue to change our lives but we all know there is so much more to life.

We at Anchorpoint are blessed by a great staff, our many volunteers, donors, corporate sponsors, counselors, tutors and board members who strive each day to help families in need. I can't stress enough what a great group this is and how I am humbled by everyone's dedication. We commit 2017 to bringing counseling sessions, tutoring and new programs to families, young adults, seniors and veterans afraid to reach out. To help them understand their challenges, to help them put a plan together, and maybe even showing them how by putting their phones down every once in a while, and building a true relationship with a friend, family member or colleague, that together you can overcome and excel in dealing with any of life's challenges.

2017 started off with the blockbuster Star Wars movie "Rogue One" where a small group of unknowns bond together and put a plan in place to destroy the evil Death Star and bring peace to the world....A small but loyal and passionate group!... It works in the movies and it works in real life too!...Anchorpoint is a small and unknown group to many people struggling seemingly without hope, but to those that we touch, we are bigger than life.....Thanks to all of you passionate people out there who believe in what we do, know the importance of building relationships and continue to be loyal in helping us reach out to people in need....Here's to a blockbuster 2017 for Anchorpoint!

Counseling Services

"The most helpful part of Anchorpoint is that someone listens and cares."

- Senior Counseling Client

"My purpose for coming was to get help coping with divorce. When my counseling ended the main changes that had taken place in my life were: I was much calmer, not angry; I learned how to set boundaries; and I wasn't so down on myself, my self-esteem improved.

Thank you!! I don't know how or what I would have done without your services."

- Middle Age Counseling Client

What parts of the program have been most helpful to you?

"Talking to someone about my feelings." - Elementary-school age Counseling Client

"The most helpful part was the affordability / sliding scale and the fact that it was Christian-based." - Young Adult Counseling Client

In 2016 ACM served approximately 440 families through our counseling services. This amounted to roughly 2700 counseling sessions. We also counseled with approximately another 100 people through the various therapeutic groups that we facilitate.

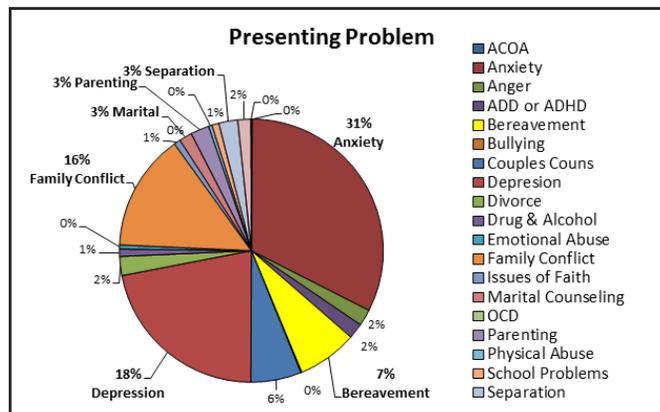

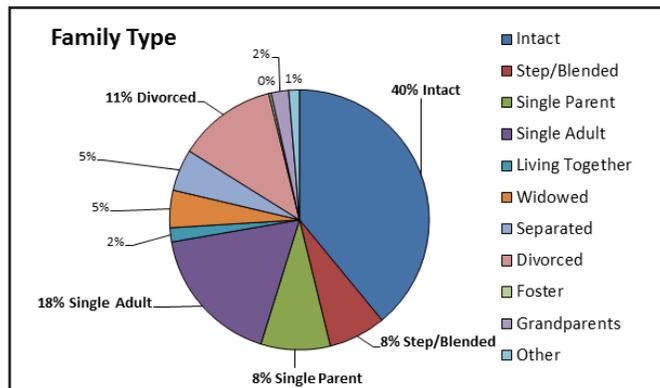

Anchorpoint continued to broaden its scope of services in 2016 by adding several new therapeutic support groups and by counseling with more people over the age of 65.

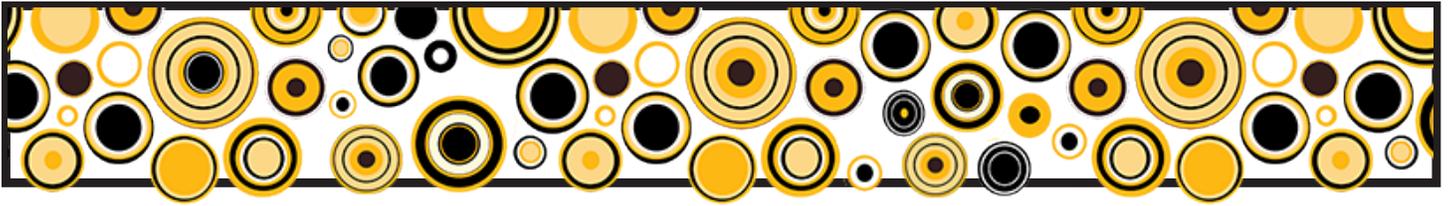

Traditionally, Anchorpoint was created to serve the needs of teens and over the past 50 years we certainly have prioritized working with teens, but from a much more family therapy based perspective. Families come in all shapes and sizes with many differing issues and we have worked to meet the many needs of our clients.

Anchorpoint works on a relational model with belief that people need to be connected in a healthy way. Attachment, belonging and caring are tremendous needs for us all. Anchorpoint addresses these needs every day through our Christian ministry perspective.

"Christ came that we might have life and have it abundantly," states John 10:10. This is life in relationships with Him and with others. Anchorpoint's name and mission are based on the goal of being anchored in Christ (Hebrews 6:19). As we are anchored in Him, we are grounded, integrated and capable of receiving love and providing love to others.

You enabled us to offer over $100,000 of free and subsidized services to families in our area. Thank you!

Support Groups & Education

Your generosity helps the therapy and education groups continue to grow and expand to meet community needs. These groups and workshops are an important part of prevention and healing. Topics are determined with input from our clinicians as well as requests from clergy, church groups, school guidance counselors, teachers, and other community partners. Anchorpoint's longest consistently running group, Grief Support for Widows and Widowers over Fifty, has been meeting at St. Sebastian Parish in Ross for well over ten years.

One of our most popular therapy groups, Self-Care Group for Women, continues to grow and expand. In assessing needs, it was determined that two slightly different groups would better fill the needs of the many eager participants. The first group is an eight week group that feels almost like a workshop. It is called the Self-Care Skills Group for Women and it boasts a fun and interactive way to learn boundaries, self-esteem, mindfulness, and stress coping skills. The second group, Self-Care In Action, is a group for women who enjoyed the Self-Care Skills Group so much that they want to continue group work on an ongoing basis. Women in this group work to apply said skills to everyday life while supported by a nurturing therapy group. Members set the pace of this group and decide when they are ready to graduate.

Sanctuary, our therapeutic group for teens, has also had a number of changes this year. With a swelling number of female registrants, the group has necessarily become a girls-only group, giving the girls an opportunity to delve more deeply into group topics such as self-esteem, body image, values, challenging negative thinking styles, depression symptoms, and more. Sanctuary ran three times in 2016, and the small group size has allowed for deep and healing discussions on the part of the participants.

SPIN (Single Parent Information Network) for single moms and their kids has also grown and expanded in 2016; so much so that a second SPIN group is now being offered at Heritage Church in Franklin Park. Between the group at ACM and the group at Heritage Church, ACM dedicates an entire evening per week to nurturing single moms. A delicious dinner is prepared for the moms and their kids. Child care and homework help is provided while the moms attend a much needed support group with other moms. All this is at no cost to the single moms because of the generosity of supporters like you.

Anchorpoint continues to venture into the cyberworld, this time with a new Facebook group designed to provide support, education, and a connection to Anchorpoint for North Hills parents. The group is called Plugged-In-Parents, and it's gathered a quick following of just under a hundred people. The hope is that this group will continue to grow, linking parents with parenting workshops, counseling, tutoring, and parent coaching programs at ACM.

Single Parent Coaching and Parenting Hot Topic Workshops also continue to be offered to those wanting to improve their parenting skills. Staff members have also been invited to speak at local schools, churches and organizations on various mental health topics and the services Anchorpoint offers to the community.

"I am so thankful for finding this group when I was in need of extra support to deal with some challenging issues. I really respect and have learned a lot from the therapist." - Support Group Attendee

"I can freely express my belief and not be judged or ridiculed. My faith in Christ has been the most dependable aspect of my recovery, and to have the support of Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry has been a true blessing. Also it is very affordable to me as well." - Support Group Attendee

"So many great tips and advice! I was expecting only a couple of take aways and I have so many ideas now!" - Parenting Workshop Attendee

"It was helpful to have access to a one on one channel of communication and problem solving relevant to the unique circumstances of my children's personalities, issues and behaviors. It was very nice to trouble-shoot and discuss the different resources available to us. I enjoyed my experience very much. Especially sharing different ideas and points of view that I may never have tried before." - Private Parent Coaching Client

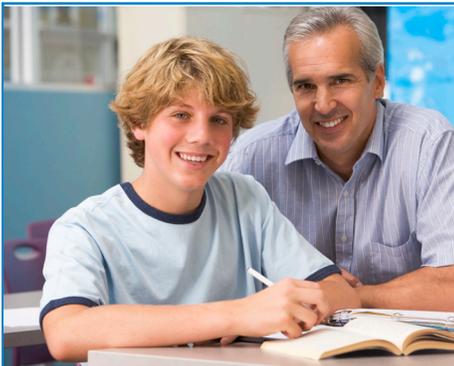

Tutoring & Mentoring

One word comes to mind when thinking about the 2016 Tutoring Program...MATH !!...lots and lots of math tutoring! Similar to the past few years, math was once again the #1 most requested subject for tutoring. Thank goodness for our talented tutors who willingly (and enthusiastically) tackled hours and hours of math assignments, along with providing support in reading, spelling, grammar, composition skills, science, and social studies.

Our dedicated tutors are the HEART of our tutoring program. This past year, 50 volunteers, along with 6-9 paid part-time teachers, provided over 1,962 hours of instruction. A total of 93 students received tutoring in our school year and summer programs. Tutors not only worked to improve their students' grades, but they strived to help their students become more independent, confident learners. As MENTORS, the tutors tried to combine academic support with empathy, motivation, and humor in order to establish a comfortable, trusting rapport with their students. Some tutors attended band concerts or sporting events that their students were participating in; other tutors brought in little rewards for their students to celebrate a good grade on a test or a birthday. A middle school student explained it best: "I like working with my tutor because he doesn't get mad when I don't know something. He's funny, too. He tells really funny jokes while we're working!"

With every year that goes by, our Anchorpoint Tutoring Program becomes even more of a go-to resource for local school districts and parents. They appreciate our one-on-one personalized instruction, our affordable rates, and our willingness to work with the schools in order to best help a student. Parents are especially grateful for our knowledgeable, committed tutors. One parent wrote, "I can't say how appreciative I am of the tutors and staff at Anchorpoint. Everything is done for each individual student with love and care to bring out the best in each child. A true example of faith in action!"

This work wouldn't be possible without our tutor/mentors!

Thank you!

50 Years of History Milestones in Ministry Because of You!

We are grateful for all those who contributed to our work of saving families, saving lives.

1960's

- North Hills Youth Ministry is established through the efforts of founding director, Rev. Keith Brown, and sixteen North Hills area churches who committed to supporting this cooperative ministry.

The 16 Founding Churches

- | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| • Ascension Lutheran | • Mount Calvary Lutheran |
| • Berkeley Hills Lutheran | • North Hills Presbyterian |
| • Christ Episcopal | • Northmont Presbyterian |
| • Heritage Presbyterian | • Ross Community Presbyterian |
| • Hiland Presbyterian | • St. John's Lutheran |
| • Ingomar United Methodist | • St. John's Evangelical Lutheran |
| • McKnight Methodist | • Trinity Lutheran |
| • Mellwood Park Presbyterian | |
| • Memorial Park | |

This number grew to 40 Protestant & Catholic churches under Rev. Brown's leadership. These vital church relationships continue to grow, change, and form today.

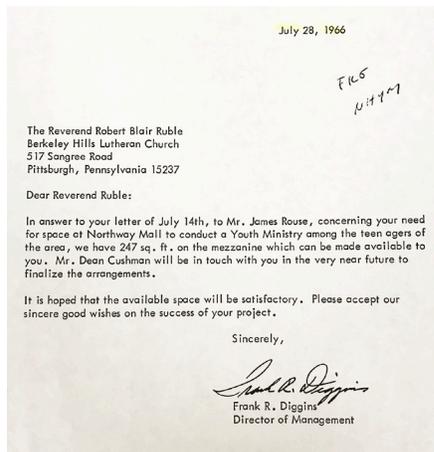

- St. John Lutheran Church donated an old church building for a gathering place which would host a coffee house, dances, Bible studies, peer counseling, adult/teen mentoring, retreats, service projects and more until the building burnt down in 1977.

- Key Club Bible Studies formed at North Allegheny High School.
- Youth Trips to Colorado and Europe were conducted.
- Young Life model of ministry followed.

- Northway Mall donated office space to NYHM. This space was used by NYHM free-of-cost from 1966 to 1992.

- Baierl Chevrolet donates a station wagon for ministry use. Baierl continued to donate cars generously for 50 years.

Free wheeling

Hill Baierl of Baierl Chevrolet handing the keys to new station wagon to the Rev. John D. Rickloff, director of the North Hills Youth Ministry. The latest station wagon donated by the Baierl's to Youth Ministry is an example of the way the North Hills community as well as churches support the work of the ministry.

Early 1970's

- Dale Sewall becomes our second director in 1972.
- NYHM moved away from Young Life Model to focus on alienated kids.
- Heavy use of trained volunteers - both adult and teen.
- Coffee House Era began.

Late 1970's and early 80's

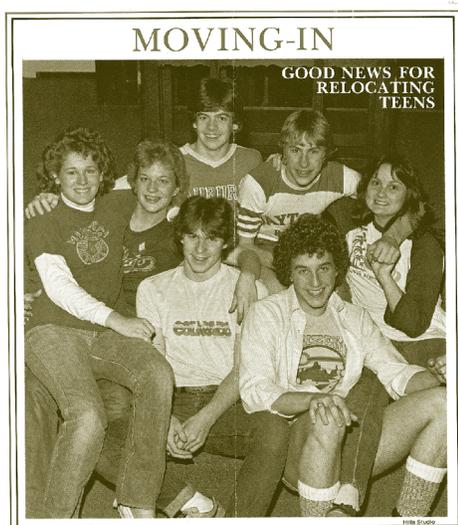

- Randy Younkin became acting director in 1976
- Annual Used Book Sale begins. This event would run for 40 years until 2015.

- John Rickloff became director in 1978.
- Focus on professional youth ministry began.
- Rickloff focused on teen drug prevention. He worked with school counselors to educate them about drug and alcohol intervention.
- After Care Programs were created to help teens remain clean.
- Counseling was made available on site at a number of high schools and NHYM worked alongside school counselors well into the mid-nineties.

Late 1980's

- Linda Stone Neuenschwander became acting director in 1986
- Teen counseling with parents and after care programming continued.
- Moving-In Program started for kids new to the North Hills area.

- Rev. Ron Barnes selected as our executive director in 1987. Ron is our longest serving executive director.

- Counseling Staff was enlarged to meet community needs.
- Due to counseling including parents, the need for more marital counseling resulted. Sister Mary Jane Beatty came on board as a marital family therapist in 1989 and has been with us for over 27 years.

- Our Graduate School Intern Program started and we began to mentor future therapists who have a desire to integrate the resources of faith into their counseling with clients.

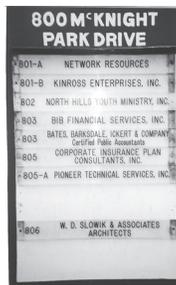

"Interning at Anchorpoint was an easy decision for me and it has proved to be a blessing. As a student of theology and social work, I was keen to find an organization that combines faith and therapy in a holistic and healing manner, demonstrating true care and love to those we serve. At Anchorpoint I have learned from the various staff and through my experiences, how to show the grace and compassion of Jesus in attuning to a client's mental and emotional health. I am interning in an environment that facilitates learning through hands on, one-on-one experience; a valuable resource to my future as a Christian mental health therapist and an opportunity many of my school peers do not have. What I gain from here will only equip me to better perform my calling and to strengthen my skills as a therapist. Because of my internship at Anchorpoint, I will be confident as a therapist and able to impact the lives of clients wherever I may go. Thank you for supporting an organization that not only provides healing of God's children but also a valuable education to those he calls into ministry. Peace and Blessings to you, Carrie Buckner, MDiv/MSW Intern."

1990's

- Our name was changed to North Hills Youth Ministry Counseling Center to emphasize our identity as a Christian counseling center.
- In 1992, we moved to our current location in McKnight East Complex.

- First Golf Classic Tournament held in 1992. In 2016 we celebrated 25 years of this event.

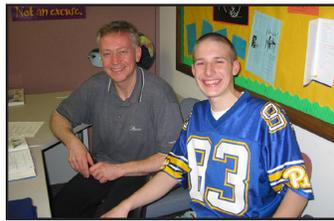

- Counseling continued to broaden to include younger children and their families. More counselors were hired as a result of moving towards a family therapy model.
- Joan Schenker was hired in 1992 as Parent Education Coordinator. She oversaw the development and implementation of parenting classes for the next 25 years.

2000's

- Youth Development Program established in 2001. The need for low cost tutoring for our clients with academic problems became evident. Sandy Niekum was hired as our tutoring Coordinator.
- We expanded our space to an adjoining condo and in 2005 we expanded again into two more condos to meet the needs of our growing ministry.
- In 2009, we changed our name to Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry based on Hebrews 6:19. This new name more accurately reflects the current scope of services offered to the whole family as well as individuals.

- Private parent coaching and SPIN (Single Parent Information Network) were added to support the growing needs of single parent families.
- Some form of support group therapy has always existed at ACM; however, in 2015 there was a renewed commitment to focus on and formulate new groups to meet the additional needs of the North Hills community.

- In 2013, we held our first Golden Anchor Gala. The honorees that year were:
Ms. Peggy Knott A Friend who Brings Hope
The Fleming Family, A Family who Brings Hope

- In late 2015, we honored our longest serving board member, Richard Bruckman. Dick served Anchorpoint as our treasurer for nearly 50 years before retiring!
- In the fall of 2016, our first Hope Scholarship was awarded in gratitude for 50 years of ministry. The recipient was Russell Parris, a 12th student in our youth development program.
- We look forward to 2017 and continuing our 50 year celebrations. With your help, we will continue serving the needs of our community for years to come.

Financial Report

Gifts listed in this report were received in our office from January 1 through December 31, 2016. If your name has been accidentally omitted or misspelled, please accept our sincere apologies and notify us at 412.366.1300.

There is great power in hope. Hope opens doors where despair has closed them. Hope sees problems as opportunities. Hope is essential for life...so essential, in fact, that Scripture describes hope as "a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls" (Hebrews 6:19). One of the earliest symbols of the Christian faith, the anchor has at its center a cross. For Christians, the cross-shaped anchor reminds us of the hope we have in Christ. In the same way an anchor steadies and secures a ship during stormy weather, hope—anchored by faith in Jesus Christ—holds the wind-tossed, storm-torn, and weary believer during his or her most perilous times. God has called on countless loving and generous individuals like you to financially support this ministry. Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry is grateful for your partnership. Thanks to your generosity, the people who desperately need help but could otherwise not afford it now have hope. Whether you donate publicly or anonymously through cash donations, the United Way Contributor Choice (code # 354), auction/raffle prizes, books, golf sponsorships, grants, office equipment or furniture, participation in fundraising events, or your time as a tutor, board member, or office volunteer, we sincerely THANK YOU.
